

31 Aug 2005

Plantation name: Jeremiah Vereen's

Horry County, South Carolina

---

Location – Seashore, 2 miles north of Singleton Swash (formerly Lewis' Swash), All Saint's Parish, Horry County, SC. (Myrtle Beach)

Map showing general location of Jeremiah Vereen's plantation home site.

Origin of name – Owner's name.

Other names – It is not known if it was known by any name other than the owner's name.

Current status – The property has been developed. The main house is believed to have been located about 2 miles north of Singleton Swash.

Comments – David Johann Schoepf describes Jeremiah Vereen's plantation as an indigo plantation in January, 1784. George Washington stayed overnight on April 27, 1791 at this plantation when it was owned by Jeremiah Vereen.

Number of acres –

Primary crop/crops – Indigo.

Owners – Jeremiah Vereen

Slaves –

Buildings – No buildings extant.

References –

Journal of Johann David Schoepf, 1784.

Diary of George Washington, 1791.

Submitted by: J. Benjamin Burroughs, Research Specialist, Coastal Carolina University