

29 Jun 2005

Colkins Neck – This area located between the Calabash River and the salt marshes of Little River Inlet was named for Jonathan Colkins who came from Norwich in the County of New London, Connecticut in the 1730s and purchased this land from William Waties.