

23 Aug 2005

Plantation name: Oregon

Horry County, South Carolina

---

Location – Waccamaw River, All Saint's Parish, Horry County, SC.

Origin of name –

Other names –

Current status –

Comments –

Number of acres – 248 acres of rice land & 4,000 acres of pine land.

Primary crop/crops – Rice.

Owners – Dr. John D. Magill, William Joseph Magill.

Slaves – Since Dr. Magill lived in Georgetown County his Oregon Plantation slaves are listed in the Georgetown County Slave Schedules, co-mingled with his slaves from his Georgetown County plantations, instead of being listed in the Horry County Slave Schedules.

Buildings – No buildings extant.

References – The History of Georgetown County, South Carolina by George C. Rogers, Jr.

Submitted by: J. Benjamin Burroughs, Research Specialist, Coastal Carolina University